

Syllabus Statement of Eliminating Anti-Blackness

Faculty at CSULB strive to create an environment that supports meaningful dialogue grounded in research, academic inquiry and mutually respectful relations. We also strive to remain conscious of and attentive to the damage that anti-blackness does to the lives of our students, faculty, staff, administrators, and their related communities.

We recognize and acknowledge anti-blackness as being endemic to how all of us make sense of social, economic, historical, and cultural dimensions of human life (The New York Times 2020). We recognize and acknowledge anti-blackness as being
