

Section II– The Chair: Responsibilities and Powers

1. Procedures and policies for selecting, reviewing, and recalling the Chair of the Department shall follow University Policies and procedures.
2. The Chair of the Department shall be the Department's chief executive officer, acting with the advice and consent of the Department Council described herein. A policy not previously decided upon by the Faculty or by the Council shall be implemented by the Chair.
3. No person shall serve as Chair more than two successive year terms or fractions thereof.
4. The Chair shall be an ex-officio member of all Departmental committees.
5. The Chair of the Department as its chief executive officer shall be responsible for the Departmental organization, and the guidance, coordination and implementation of Departmental activities and policies.
6. Responsibility for the supervision and coordination of individual Departmental programs may be delegated to committees reporting to the Department Chair; committee chairmen shall be

Section IV Powers Delegated to Individual Department Members

- 1.

Section V Elections

1. The election committee shall consist of three members of the Department chosen by lot at the beginning of the fall semester; they shall serve until the following fall.
2. Should a member of the Election Committee be a candidate for elective Departmental office, the members place shall be taken on the Election Committee, for the duration of that election, by another Department member chosen by lot by the permanent Election Committee from those Department members not candidates for any office in that election. In the case of Committee elections or other elections in which more than 2/3 of the Department members are automatically candidates by virtue of their positions, the Election Committee shall stand as originally constituted.
3. At least two members of the election committee shall be present and participate in the counting

