: How do we maintain campus morale in all constituencies considering the many challenges we face in resources, expectations, and communication?

: How can we have a University where students enjoy their classes, faculty look forward to teaching, and staff are excited about their jobs? In other words, how can we ask our constituents if they are having fun at the University (since that leads to better learning)?

: How do we ensure and improve physical and behavioral health for faculty, staff, students, and administrators in precarious and uncertain times?

: How do we adapt our curriculum and programs to a constantly
