- B. Auxiliary organizations shall not perform any of the functions listed in Section 42500 unless the function has been specifically assigned in the operating agreement with the campus. The campus shall review, at least every five years, the auxiliary organizations to ensure that written operating agreements are current and that auxiliary organization activities are in compliance with those agreements. Confirmation that this review has been conducted will consist of either an updated operating agreement, or a letter from the campus.

authority and ensure that receipts and disbursements comply with the auxiliary organization fiscal policies and internal controls, and with the written agreement with the university. The auxiliary organization shall retain any legal obligations and liabilities, fiscal liabilities, and fiduciary responsibilities associated with transactions initiated or approved by such campus employees with delegated authority.

- C. Auxiliary organizations may accept or administer campus funds as an agent of the university (except those revenues listed in part D below) when specifically authorized in writing by the campus president or his/her designee. Said authorization shall be granted judiciously and only when it is advantageous to the university and supportive of the university mission. The authorization should include the rationale for making this choice and clearly articulate the advantages to the university.
- D. The following revenues shall be solely the revenues of the campus and shall be reported in compliance with Executive Order No. 1000: Delegation of Fiscal Authority and Responsibility.
  - 1. Revenues from CSU systemwide mandatory fees which includes student fees established and adjusted by the Board of Trustees and that must be paid to apply to, enroll in, or attend the university, or to pay the full cost of instruction required of some students by state statute.
  - 2. Revenues from campus mandatory fees which include student fees established for a campus and that must be paid to enroll in or attend the university.
  - 3. Revenues from campus student fees directly related to any state-supported course of instruction which includes Miscellaneous Course Fees and fees for materials, services, field trips, and travel.
  - 4. Revenues from fees paid by matriculated CSU students to attend campus self-supported instructional programs for academic credit.

As the custodian of mandatory fees collected on behalf of a student body organization, the campus CFO may only disburse such funds upon the receipt of a request for payment. Other fees, if any, collected on behalf of a student body organization will be similarly administered unless otherwise designated by a student fee referendum.

The campus shall also collect and be the custodian of student body center fees. The campus CFO is responsible for ensuring auxiliary organization expenditures of student center fees comply with the approved purposes of the fees and with Board of Trustees and campus policy.
