BOB MURPHY ACCESS CENTER

BMAC GUIDELINES FOR DOCUMENTATION

In order to register with the Bob Murphy Access Center MAQ, students must provide supporting documentation containing upon estable in altreatisability documentating guidelines are toguide the treating professional in clearly communicating the student's disability limitations and needs. Students are encouraged to submit as much documentation as possible, even the disability documentation does not meet all elements stated with MAC guidelines (i.e. IEP or 504 Plan). Provision AAB services may be available during this process on a cascade basis.

A qualified healthcare professional may choose to submit a narrative report or other records if they

Comprehensive occumentation will include the following:

- í X Documentation Template: Documentation should have the date of the report, writteniglish and printed on letterhead of the evaluator
- î X Verifying Professional Requirements: The verifying professional's national number, or credential information.
 - X The verifying professional should have specific expertise related to the diagnosed conditi
 - X The verifying professional should not be related to the student.
- i X Diagnostic Criteria: Documentation should be current, relevant, and comprehensive and demonstrate the substantial impact to one or moreajor life activities.
 - X Provide a clear diagnosis, including diagnostic spet (i.e. diagnostic DSM codes) where relevant, that describes the disability and provides information

Current Treatment: Describe current treatment in the form of medication or therapy, as well as